Report:

It is Pandemic time when the entire Globe is in Confinement due to lockdown. Mankind with no medical safeguard at its disposal is in utter helplessness. Everyone is left frustrated due to indefinite and compulsory confinement. The teachers and students of Deshabandhu Mahavidyalaya, Chittaranjan were no exception under this suffocating condition. Vulnerability is seemingly imminent every moment. All these adversities notwithstanding, the department of Bengali, as usual, observed the customary বাইশ াবণ, the death anniversary of Bengal's iconic poet and philosopher Rabindranath Tagore. The programme obviously is held Online with a significant title 'গৃহবন্দি মনেন বাইশ াবণ' on August 07, 2020. The programme was held in collaboration with Plassey College, Dt.- Nadia (WB). The welcome speech was delivered by Dr Basanta Pradhan, Hon'ble principal of the Plassey College. Dr Pradhan reverentially deliberated on Rabindranath Tagore's contribution as a poet, litterateur and philosopher. He expressed his thankfulness to the department of Bengali, Deshabandhu Mahavidyalaya for organizing such an enriching programme amidst the lockdown. Dr Sagar Chandra Bandyopadhyay, Teacher in charge of our College expressed gratitude on behalf of Deshabandhu Mahavidyalaya, Chittaranjan, to all the dignitaries in particular and the members of audience for taking the trouble to attend the programme.

The programme had two phases. Initially there was a Webinar. Among the resource persons gracefully present to deliver valuable speeches were Dr Debolina Seth, head of the department of Bengali, Rabindra bharati University, Kolkata and Dr Debolina Debnath, Professor, Department of Folk art, Kalyani University, Dt.- Nadia(W.B.). Dr. Debolina Seth, in her speech had words of praise to the organisers for their grit and determination to inculcate Rabindranath among its students in a remote area like Chittaranjan. Referring to various creations of Tagore, she explained the inner significance.

Dr. Debolina Debnath dealt with Rabindra nath Tagore's contribution on folk art. The oratory skill and Wisdom of the resource persons left the audience spellbound. The audience of this Webinar consisted of a good number of faculty members, non- teaching staff and students of both the Colleges.

The second phase was meant for Cultural programmes participated mainly by students of both the Colleges. The programme comprised Rabindra Sangeet, recitation from Tagore's poems, dance performances, instrumental music and speeches on Tagore's creation and contributions. The anchoring job was done by Dr. Dola Sarkar and Dr. Devlina Chowdhury, faculty members from Plassey College, Dt- Nadia and Deshabandhu Mahavidyalaya, PO - Chittaranjan Dt Paschim Bardhaman respectively. At a Corona and Aamphan ravaged time it has been an uphill task for the two Colleges to organize this three hour long programme which undoubtedly conveys an optimistic message at this time of adversity.
