Title of the Event: The Causes and the Aftermath of the 1984 Riots

Number of Participants: 85

Date: June 15, 2022

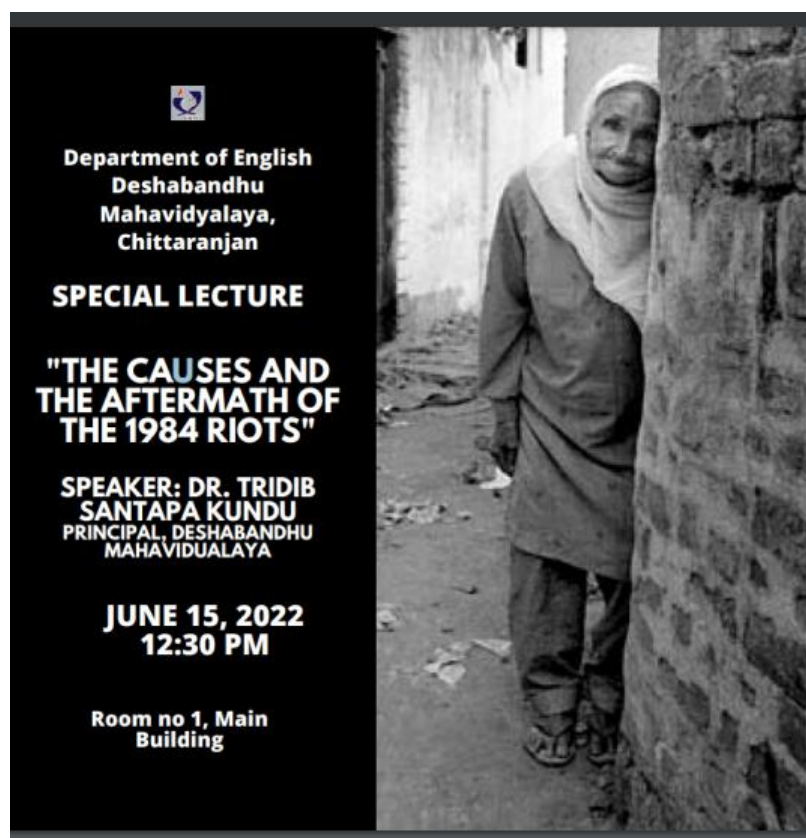

Report:

The Department of English, Deshabandhu Mahavidyalaya, Chittaranjan has organized a special seminar session as a part of alternative learning methods on June 15, 2022. The Hon'ble Principal of the College, Prof. Tridib Santapa Kundu addressed the students of Semester 4 English (Hons) students on 1984 communal riots. The seminar was meant as a grounding session for a text of Amitav Ghosh on personal history called "The Ghosts of Mrs. Gandhi." Dr. Kundu expertly dealt with the political and social conditions pre and post Operation Blue Star and the violent consequence of Indira Gandhi's assassination. The session not only had provided a necessary grounding for the text, but had also discussed the various proliferations of communal violence and state sanctioned methods of countering them.

This lecture is meant to be the first of a series of alternate teaching in collaboration with other departments and Institutions.
