Title of the Event: Films that weren't Made: Ritwik Ghatak's Unfinished Projects

Number of Participants: 105

Date: August 20, 2021

Report:

The Department of English, Deshabandhu Mahavidyalaya, Chittaranjan organized a special seminar on Ritwik Ghatak's unfinished projects on August 20, 2021. The resource person for the day was Dr. Sanghita Sen, Honorary Research Fellow, University of St. Andrews, Scotland. The session was held online in Zoom platform and was attended by some three hundred interested participants, teachers, students as well as independent scholars across the country.

Dr. Sen stressed on Ghatak's cinematic language and political idiom and analysed his modernism that he skilfully translated throughout his oeuvre. Dr. Sen cross referred Ghatak's unfinished works (Koto Ajanarey, Ranger Golam and Bagalar Bongo Darshan) with Ghatak's own thoughtful commentary on his work. Dr. Sen also discussed the role of the protagonist in all three of the unfinished projects.

The session was extremely informative and invited a whole host of extremely vibrant questions and observations from the audience.
