BEST PRACTICE III

- 1. Title of the Practice: Bridge Course for Slow Learners
- 2. Objectives of the Practice: The objective of the practice is to identify slow learners and help them to achieve the required level of learning within the stipulated credit hours.
- 3. The Context: It is observed that few students in various departments are not been able to complete the syllabus mainly due to inability to understand English, Mathematics and Basic Computer Application.
- 4. The Practice: Departments of English, Mathematics and Computer Science used to run a 4-week crash course at the beginning of every academic session to provide a quick recap or to touch upon the basics of Mathematics/Computer/ Communicative English in order to have a better understanding of the subject that s/he has chosen to be graduated with.
- 5. Evidence of Success: It appears that the stated program has helped the students to achieve required of learning in compliance with the syllabus. As evident from the student attendance register, number of drop out has reduced significantly after the introduction of Bridge Course.
- 6. Problems Encountered and Resources Required: To start with the respective committee had the problem of identifying the students facing such issues with the basic understanding of the subjects mentioned above. However, the problem has been sorted with the help of respective departmental teachers. Facilitation of Bridge Course to weaker students does not require any additional resource as such. The only thing it required is a coordinated approach across the departments by way of resource sharing.
- 7. Notes (Optional)
