Report:

Theatrical Workshop conducted by 'co-curricular Activities Cell', Deshabandhu Mahavidyalaya, Chittaranjan in collaboration with 'VIKALPA' On August 10,2022, in a joint initiative of the Co Curricular activities cell under IQAC and 'Vikalpa',a local theatre organisation at Rupnarayanpur, a theatrical workshop was conducted at our college, Deshabandhu Mahavidyalaya, Chittaranjan.The objective of the workshop was two-fold. To Kindle interest in drama/ theatre and to increase social consciousness among the students. Apart from the members of the theatre organisation 'Vikalpa', the others to have attended the programme were hon'ble Principal Dr. Tridib Santapa Kundu, the members of the IQAC, the members of the Co curricular activities cell and other faculty members of the College. Spontaneous and enthusiastic presence of a huge number of students too was worth noticing. The programme commenced with the introductory speech of hon'ble Principal Dr Tridib Santapa Kundu. Dr Anathbandhu Chattopadhyay, an ex teacher and a well known theatre activist of the locality in an enriching speech dealt with the way Bengali drama/theatre have meandered its way through time to evolve from past to its present form. Prior to Dr Chattopadhyay's speech, there was a short drama performance,relevant to the contemporary problems, presented by the 'Vikalpa' theatre activists themselves. A solo song was sung by Smt Papiya Bhattacharya of the same organisation. Apart from all these, the organisers arranged for a psychological test of the students present in the workshop. At the completion of the workshop, the participant students had some token gift on behalf of the the organisers. Sri Debangshu Das and other members of 'Vikalpa' were in overall supervision of the entire workshop. The grand success of the workshop owes a lot to the positive and enthusiastic role of the members of the Co-curricular activities cell and this deserves special mention
