Reports:

Amidst the challenges posed by the COVID-19 pandemic, the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) at Deshabandhu Mahavidyalaya Chittaranjan organized a five-day workshop on "Quality Circle Basics: Streamlining College Operations." The inauguration of the event took place on February 8, 2021, at 11:00 am on the Google meet platform, attracting a substantial gathering of staff, students, and interested individuals from nearby institutions. Dr. Sagar Chandra Bandyopadhyay, Hon'ble Teacher in Charge of the College and Associate Professor in the Department of Bengali, and Dr. Mukul Kamle, Assistant Professor from the Geography Department of the college, presided over the inaugural session, setting a tone of enthusiasm and engagement. Dr. Kamle initiated the workshop with an illuminating presentation on the foundational principles of quality circles and their role in optimizing college operations. On the second day, Dr. B J Sarkar, Associate Professor of Vivekananda Mahavidyalaya, Burdwan delved into strategies for identifying operational inefficiencies and implementing quality improvement initiatives within the college setting. Next day, Dr. Koushik Hati, Assistant Professor in the Department of Commerce of the college, provided practical insights into leveraging quality circles to enhance administrative processes and resource management. 4th day was offered by the guidance of Prof. Apurbo Kumar Roy, the Coordinator of the IQAC and Associate Professor in the Department of Philosophy, on establishing and sustaining quality circles, emphasizing the importance of stakeholder engagement and leadership commitment. The final day of the workshop was dedicated to summarizing key insights and experiences. Dr. Kamle facilitated a session where registered participants were invited to deliver short presentations on predetermined topics, followed by an interactive question-answer session to deepen understanding and address queries. At the completion of the workshop, participants were honored with Certificates of Participation in recognition of their active involvement and dedication. The event concluded with a formal vote of thanks delivered by Dr. Abul Hussain, Associate Professor in the Department of Mathematics, expressing gratitude to all contributors for their valuable contributions and commitment to enhancing college operations.
