Reports:

Amidst the challenges posed by the COVID-19 pandemic, the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) at Deshabandhu Mahavidyalaya Chittaranjan organized a five-day workshop on "Teaching Innovation: Intellectual Property in the Classroom." The inauguration of the event took place on August 3, 2020, at 11:00 am on the ZOOM online platform, drawing a significant audience comprising staff, students, and interested members from nearby institutions, all eager to engage with the enlightening discussions and presentations. The inauguration was presided over by Dr. Sagar Chandra Bandyopadhyay, Hon'ble Teacher in Charge of the College and Associate Professor in the Department of Bengali, and Prof. Apurbo Kumar Roy, the Coordinator of the IQAC and Associate Professor of Philosophy. Prof. Roy, shedded light on the importance of intellectual property rights and their integration into classroom teaching practices. On 2nd day, Md. Aziul Alam, Advocate, Calcutta High Court delivered an informative session, exploring practical strategies for incorporating intellectual property concepts into curriculum design and teaching methodologies. Next day, Dr. Mukul Kamle, Assistant Professor from Geography Department of the college discussed the role of intellectual property in fostering creativity and innovation among students, emphasizing its significance in the educational landscape. Dr. Madhumita Nath, Assistant Professor from Physics department of Lovely Professional University on day 4, shared valuable insights into the legal and ethical considerations surrounding intellectual property rights in the educational context, guiding participants on best practices and compliance measures. The final day of the workshop, led by Md. Aziul Alam, focused on summarizing the key learning and experiences from the week's sessions. Registered participants were encouraged to make short presentations on predetermined topics, followed by an interactive question-answer session to deepen understanding and address queries. At the conclusion of the enriching workshop, Prof. Durgapada Mal, Associate Professor in the Department of Commerce, extended a formal Vote of Thanks to all participants, speakers, and organizers for their contributions to the success of the event.
