Report on Celebration of National Youth Day

Swami Vivekananda's birthday 12 January is observed as the National Youth Day. Our College Deshabandhu Mahavidyalaya too is no exception in this respect. A programme on the occasion of Swami Vivekananda's 159th birth anniversary was organised in our College on 12 January, 2022 to observe the National Youth Day in a befitting manner. Our honourable Teacher in Charge Sir, Dr. Sagar Chandra Bandyopadhyay presided over the function. Dr. Bandyopadhyay delivered a well deliberated speech on Swami Vivekananda. The programme commenced with garlanding the portrait of Swami Vivekananda by Prof. Tirtha Mondal, the NSS programme officer of the College. Then floral tributes were given by others present. Prof. Tirtha Mondal, in his brief speech, called upon the students and NSS volunteers to get acquainted with the life and thoughts of this iconic personality like Swami Vivekananda and urged for implementation of these in practical life. When India was under British rule, Swami Vivekananda was the inspiration of our freedom fighters. People of our country, even after seventy five years of freedom from British rule, are yet to get rid of the fundamental problems. So Swami Vivekananda is still a role model for the youths of present day India. Prof. Siba Prasad Mandal, Assistant Professor in Physics, delivered a speech on the life and work of Swami Vivekananda.

Two of the NSS volunteers presented a patriotic song relevant to the occasion.

Around 20 students and NSS volunteers were present in the programme. The anchoring was done by Prof. Tirtha Mondal. The programme ended with vote of thanks delivered by Prof. Tirtha Mondal.
